EASTERN EUROPE FAMINE IS CALLED "FRIGHTFUL"

Conditions Described by James H.
Becker, Member of American Jewish Relief Committee.

Famine conditions in eastern Europe, surpassing those of the Volga in frightfulness, are briefly described by James H. Becker of the American Jewish Relief Committee, who recently returned from a period of service as director of the joint distribution committee's work in eastern Poland, the Ukraine and other war-ravaged districts.

"There are little used for food in some parts of eastern Europe, and on one occasion a rat stew was all we had to eat," Mr. Becker stated. "Much of this territory is a land without dogs or birds, for these, like the rats, have been eaten when they could be caught by the famished sufferers. And in many cases all the food we could find was a broth made of roots and herbs which had been dug up. Horse meat—without bread or any vegetables—is a luxury."

The American Jewish Relief Committee's campaign for $14,000,000, which it is hoped, will be raised by March 1, is to be used for the relief of sufferers in this territory, as well as other parts of Europe that are suffering similar hardships.

Harry L. Gravelly, 21, Arrested on Auto Firm's Request.

Harry Lewis Gravelly, twenty-one years old, formerly employed as auditor for the Luttrell Company, automobile dealers, 1214 New Hampshire avenue, arrested Friday afternoon by Detective Hugh Connors and left of the automobile squad and held on a charge of embezzlement, the defendant, alleged a shortage of $500. The accounts of the defendant are being examined by an accountant, and it is stated, may show a shortage of more than $3,000. Gravelly was in the employ of the Luttrell Company about ten months prior to August 2, when, it is stated, he left the city and went to Memphis, Tenn., return three days ago. It is said he resided in or near Danville, Va., and had worked for the Newport News Shipbuilding Company before coming to this city.

HELD IN FORGERY CASE.

Michael J. Dewfallo Also Accused of Taking Gems Worth $2,000.

Six charges of forgery have been preferred against Michael Joseph Dewfallo, thirty-five years old, 400 East Capitol street, as a result of an investigation conducted by Detective Fowler and Flaherty since the arrest of the young man at Emporia, Va.

Complainants registered in the forgery cases are Charles Heath, Charles Hotel, W. H. Neely, 413 13th street (two charges); Walter S. Bentz, Franklin National Bank; Herbert V. Hunt, Commercial National Bank, and Russell E. Trammer, Capitol Heights, Md.

It is said by the police that Dewfallo admitted taking about $2,000 worth of diamonds from the room of Robert Pender of Philadelphia, a guest at the National Hotel the morning of the fire. Pender was a member of a theatrical troupe playing at Keith's Theater at that time.

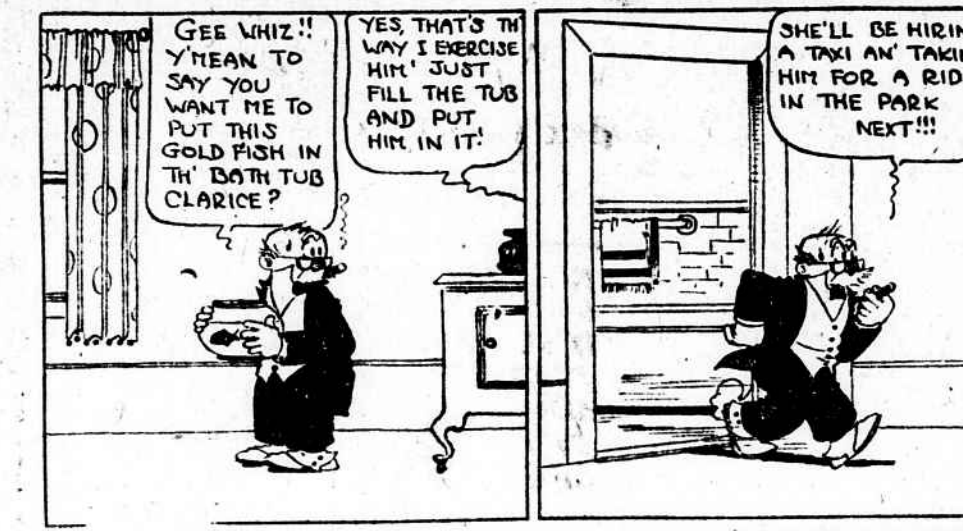

The diamonds, it is said, were sold to a local dealer. It was not known that they belonged to Pender, however, and they were not recovered.

Dewfallo was held on a bond of $2,500 for grand jury action following his appearance in Police Court yesterday.

HEARING ON NOMINATION.

KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES—Pa Pulled a "Bone."

Spring Is Coming

Soon the winter will be gone from the haunts of freezing men, and the grass upon the lawn will be turning green again; verdure soon will run amuck, and we'll hear the quacking duck, and the earnest, thoughtful click of the busy setting hen. Oh, the wintry tempest blows, and it howls along the street; there is ice upon my nose and my ears are full of sleet; bleak the sky that o'er us lends, but the worst uprising ends, and we'll soon be telling friends that we're weary of the heat. Oh, the winter isn't nice, when it blusters to and fro, and my shoes are full of ice and my hat is full of snow; but I try to dance and sing and be happy as a king, for I have a hunch that spring pretty soon her goods will show. And she has the finest line that a man could wish to see, slinging birds on every vine, and a homing bumble bee; sweetest fragrance in the air, and a rosebud here and there, and golden sunshine everywhere, and a flower bedded lea. Roughhouse Winter stays a while, filling us with discontent, heaping in a crazy pile snow that isn't worth it, but he soon is out of sight; then comes Spring, a bride in white, bringing comfort and delight to the breast of every gent.
